

Longevity De-Risking a Defined Benefit Pension Plan - Why Plan Sponsors Transact and which Approaches are Available

Amy Kessler

Longevity risk awareness is rising among sponsors of defined benefit pension plans and is increasingly a factor driving pension de-risking transactions. This presentation focuses on the actual transactions that have taken place in the UK, the US and Canada to transfer pension longevity risk, including buy-in, buy-out and longevity insurance. The differences between these approaches and the reasons plan sponsors are motivated to choose a particular approach will be covered. 2012 and 2013 are pivotal years in the globalization of these markets.
